ABOUT UVCT

Urivi Vikram Charitable Trust (UVCT) is a national level non-governmental organization, with a focus on social and economic empowerment of young adults (10 to 19 years). The trust has played a pioneering role in obtaining a distinct status for 'Adolescents' in the Indian planning system and programmatic initiatives. Established as the first ever National Centre for Adolescent in New Delhi in 2007, it focuses on a wide range of adolescent centric issues, including Life Skill Education. UVCT has also played a remarkable role in empowering young boys and girls from marginalized sections of the society through education, health facilities and vocational training. Among many other development programmes, UVCT has undertaken projects for women empowerment and awareness campaigns on public health, environmental protection issues and reformation/rehabilitation of delinquents. UVCT is working in six states of India – Andhra Pradesh, Delhi, Haryana, Karnataka, Maharashtra, and Telangana, besides a Local Chapter in USA. UVCT runs all its programmes focussed on national initiatives in the core area with support from Government Schemes, UN Organisations, PSUs and individual donors.
